Placing a trade is simple with the MT4 Android application and can be performed from the Quotes, Charts and Trade pages, as explained within the guide.

From the new order page, you can enter the traded volume size by swiping with your finger and the type of order execution you want to place via the dropdown menu – either choosing between a market execution, or pending order (Buy Limit, Sell Limit, Buy Stop and Sell Stop).

The instrument that is traded can be viewed at the top of the screen in the blue header section.

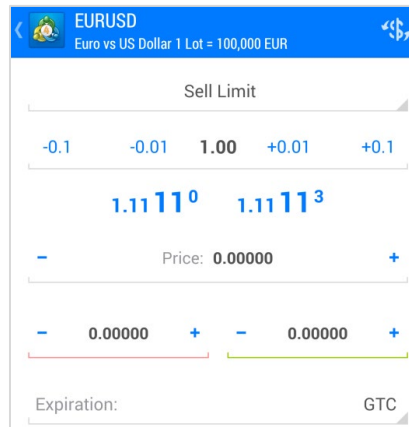

Open an order at Market Execution (A buy or sell order that is executed at the market price):

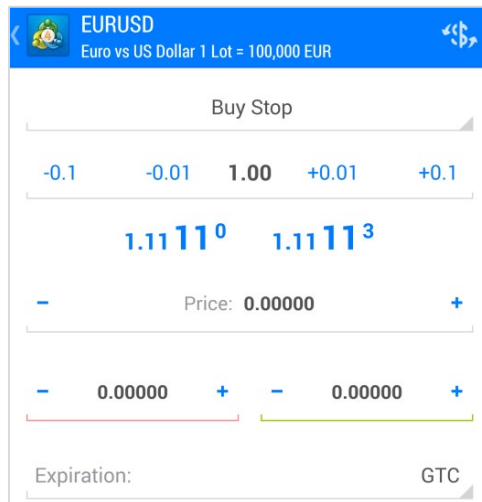

Buy Limit - A pending order to open a buy position with an entry price below the current market price:

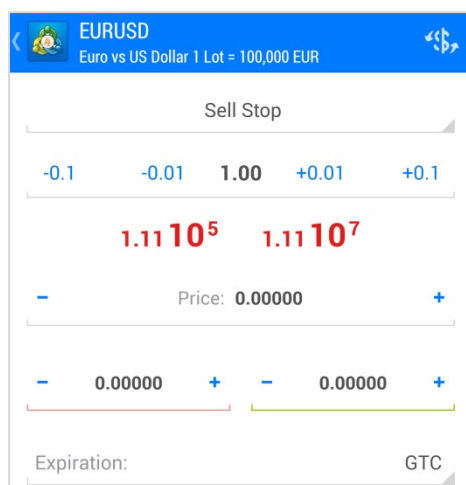

Sell Limit - A pending order to open a sell position with an entry price above the current market price:

Buy Stop - A pending order to open a buy position with an entry price above the current market price:

Sell Stop - A pending order to open a sell position with an entry price below the current market price:

Note that If the entry price, the SL or the TP you have entered is incorrect the button Place will remain inactive (in grey)

Pending orders allow you to set the Expiration either as a Good Till Cancelled or at a specified date/time. The default setting is GTC for currency trading. For the other financial instruments, the pending orders expiration depends from the requirements of the exchanges.

Once you have set the parameters of your trade, simply select Buy/Sell in the case of a market order, or Place in the case of a pending order.

To close/modify an open position, or to add a stop loss, or take profit, you should select the order from the Trade page. Just tap and hold your finger for a few seconds until the optional menu pops up. At this point you will be able to modify or close open positions.
